Virginia

I'm glad I had you in class in high school. We have really had some laughs together. It was fun talking about you know who and writing you know what.
I'm glad I don't like him anymore. I'm your going to let so I will be able to see you next year. I'll always remember you as one of my best friends at Monticello.
Love & Luck

The girls of FHA are striving to improve personal, family, and community living. Some of this year's activities have included the installation and initiation of members and officers, a Christmas party, and learning about the political, social, and family life in Iran from three students from that country.

Suzi O'Donnell, Pat Damon, Miss Margaret Allen, Terry Picciano, Opal Jackson, Betty Fassers

f t a

Some of this year's activities of FTA were: buying the Homecoming Queen's roses and crown, going to Fall Conference at USC, visiting Bella Vista Elementary School, and grading the MHS campus. The purpose of the club is to create interest and understanding in the field of teaching. Maintaining at least a "C" average and having a genuine interest in teaching are the only requirements for joining FTA.

artisans

The Artisans is composed of people who like to do every type of art work. This year they have worked on paintings, pottery, mosaics, and jewelry and also took a trip to the Los Angeles Museum.

One may become a member of this club by showing an interest in art and by coming to the meetings.

assemblies

Our Thanksgiving assembly was the play "Gobbles for Dinner," written by Mr. Pete Henderson and presented by the drama department.

The Christmas assembly was made a success through the combined efforts of the orchestra, a cappella choir, and drama department.

Oilers were given a chance to show off at the talent assembly. Shown are the "Little Kingstons:" Ted Meyers, Curt Zastopil, and Dennis Houser.

Our most controversial assembly this year was the one given by pianist Frederic Sjobiarn.

On March 16, the Esquires gave their annual assembly.

William Roy entertained Oilerville with his ventriloquism, jokes, and tumbling.

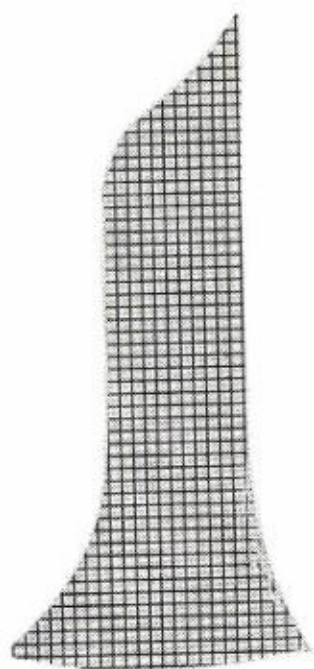

The Women's Air Force Band, who have played for residential inaugurations and have been to the Far East and Europe, entertained us on December 9.

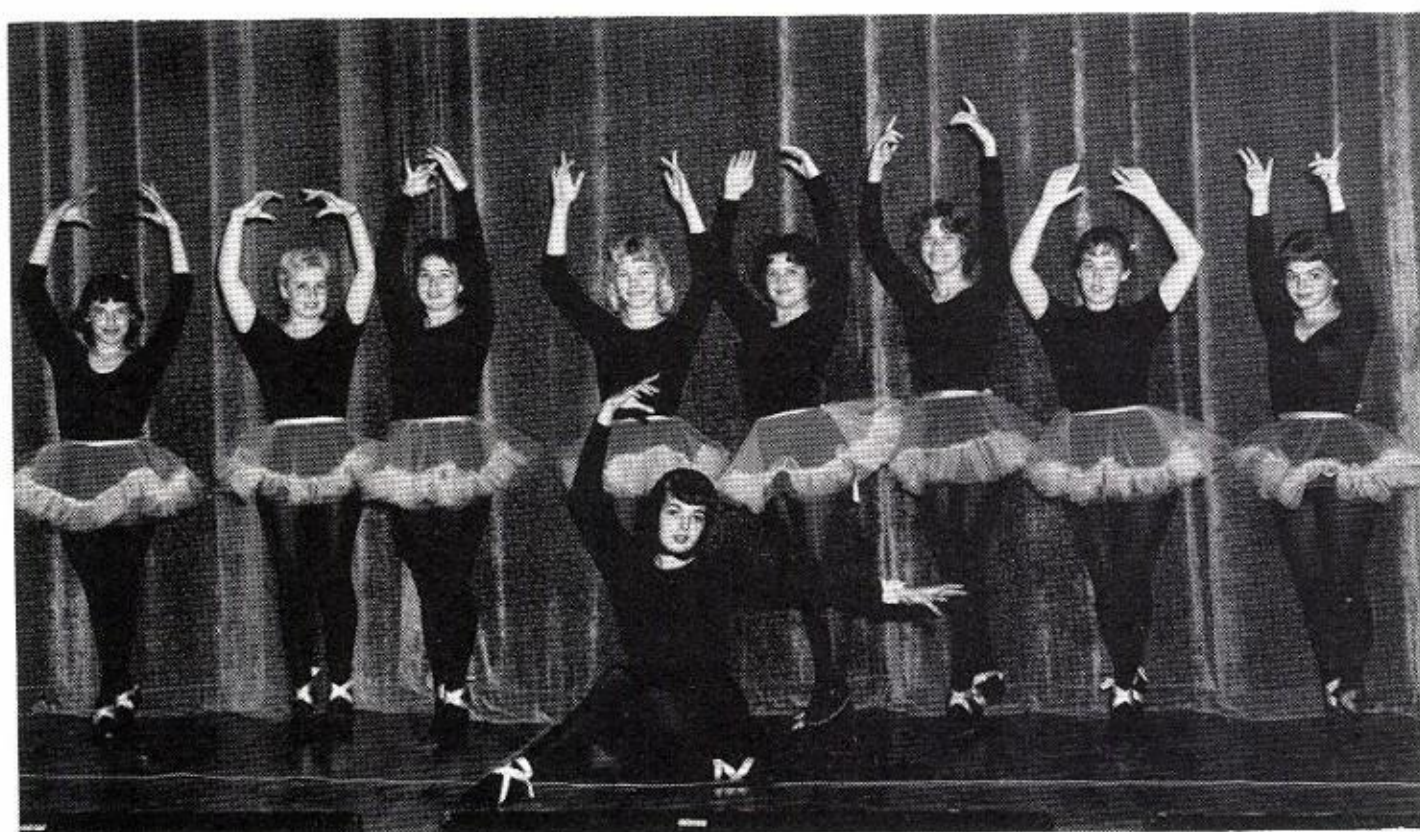

Oilers found Jean Durand, his jokes and singing, very entertaining.

Judy Williamson sang at several assemblies. Here she is singing "Autumn Leaves" with the Esquires.

The cast for our Senior Show lines up for the finale.

In Madame Tuttle's School of Dance are Susan Pena, Linda Gardner, Toni Barstow, Karin Wendell, Marilyn Cameron, Pam Cole, Peggy Saunders, Anne Greenhaw, and Marie Gandee.

The Telephone skit feature Barbara Armstrong, Carol Meyer, and Jackie Jackson.

Spinsters Six Plus One are Tina Gonzalez, Virginia Shivers, Peggy Crone, Linda Arutinian, Yvonne Sanchez, Margaret Niemack, and Lynda Preston.

"My gosh she's alive!" Yes, the dead actually came back to life in this year's Drama Night presentation, Out of the Frying Pan.

Jack Kelso, Aloha Morse, Rick Stark, Dale Taylor, Joe Rubio, Toby Coleman, Douglas Wall, Diane Bixby, Mel Brown, and Myrna Hodgeman, made up the cast for this year's Drama Night production.

Jack Stark, Aloha Morse, and Jack Kelso became quite perplexed when they pleaded, "Come on Mr. Kenny, give us a chance!"

"Waltz of the Frogs," first place winner, was the highlight of Hi-Jinx this year.

The clumsy "frogs" attempted a graceful waltz.

These girls showed us an interesting side of farm life in their roles as the "Iowa Farmerettes."

It seems that nothing can harm these "Georgia Peaches," not even that vicious worm who tried to horn in on their dance in this year's annual Hi-Jinx.

The story of a chick's life was told as the "Rhode Island Reds" rejected their little black chick.

hi-jinx

The theme of this dance was to depict the serenity of the hills of "Green Vermont."

"Get that mosquito!" yells Mary Jo Crozier in her role as Ivan Offilitch. Rita Wittmeier portrayed the part of Daisy.

This year the theme for our annual Girls' League Hi-Jinx was "Bon Voyage." The theme was carried out by nineteen dances which took the audience from Hawaii to California.

The story was tied together by Mary Jo Crozier and Rita Wittmeier. Miss Crozier played the part of a travel agency guide who was looking for his partner who had absconded with the company funds. Miss Wittmeier was a rich little girl who joined the guide in his travels.

Decorations for this year's Christmas Dance were carried out in red, green, and white. The center of attraction was a twenty-two foot white Christmas tree decorated with red bulbs.

Taking time out from the dancing, Oiler students enjoy refreshments in the cocktail room with their dates.

Entering the dance, Oilers look forward to an enjoyable evening.

The pepsters put Oilerville in high spirits for the Homecoming game.

Members of several school organizations made our Homecoming parade a success.

The activities for this year's Homecoming started early in the morning when returning Oilers began signing the register. As the day went on, the alumni traveled from room to room chatting with the teachers.

The Homecoming parade had 20 cars participating in it. First place for floats was won by Bannerettes, second place, Thespians; third place, GAA.

In the evening at the football game, Queen Roberta Seamon and her two princesses, Judy Lipan and Karen Karlein, reigned over the activities.

After the game Oilers met with the alumni at the Montebello Armory for the Homecoming dance sponsored by the 20-30 Club of Montebello.

Alumni registered in the ASB Room from nine until two. Close to four hundred returning Oilers registered at that time.

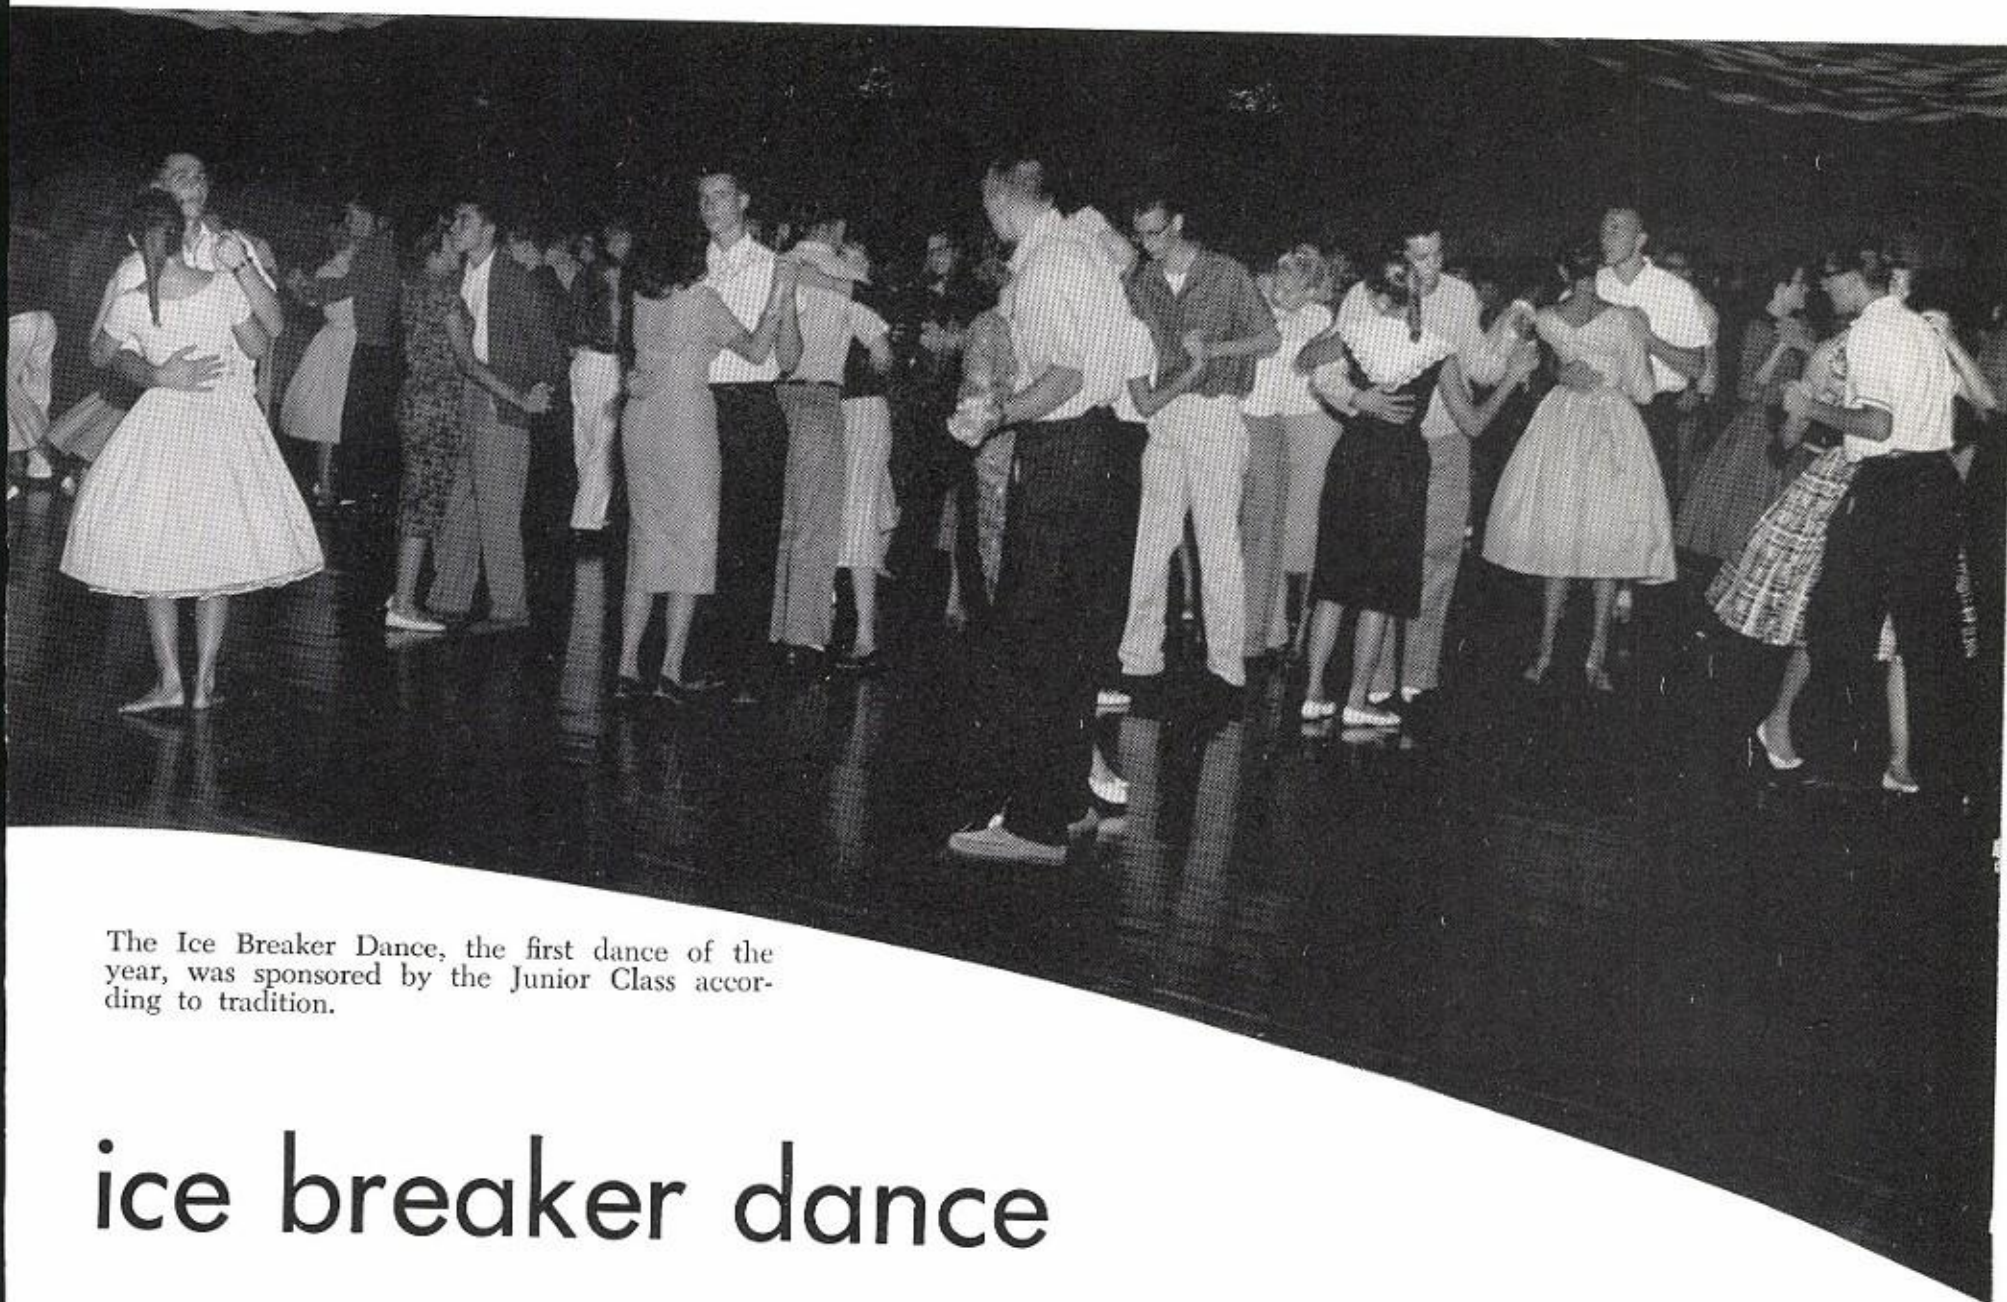

Queen Roberta Seamon was escorted by Leonard Olson. Darrell Juve drove the Queen's car.

The MHS Band, under the baton of Mr. Herb Roesner, has consistently taken top honors this year. In the San Gabriel Valley district festival they were given superior ratings. Both in the Hawthorne Parade and in the All Western Band Review in Long Beach, MHS took first place.

During the football season they played at all our games and they represented us in the Montebello Christmas Parade. The Band has put on assemblies both at the two local junior highs and here.

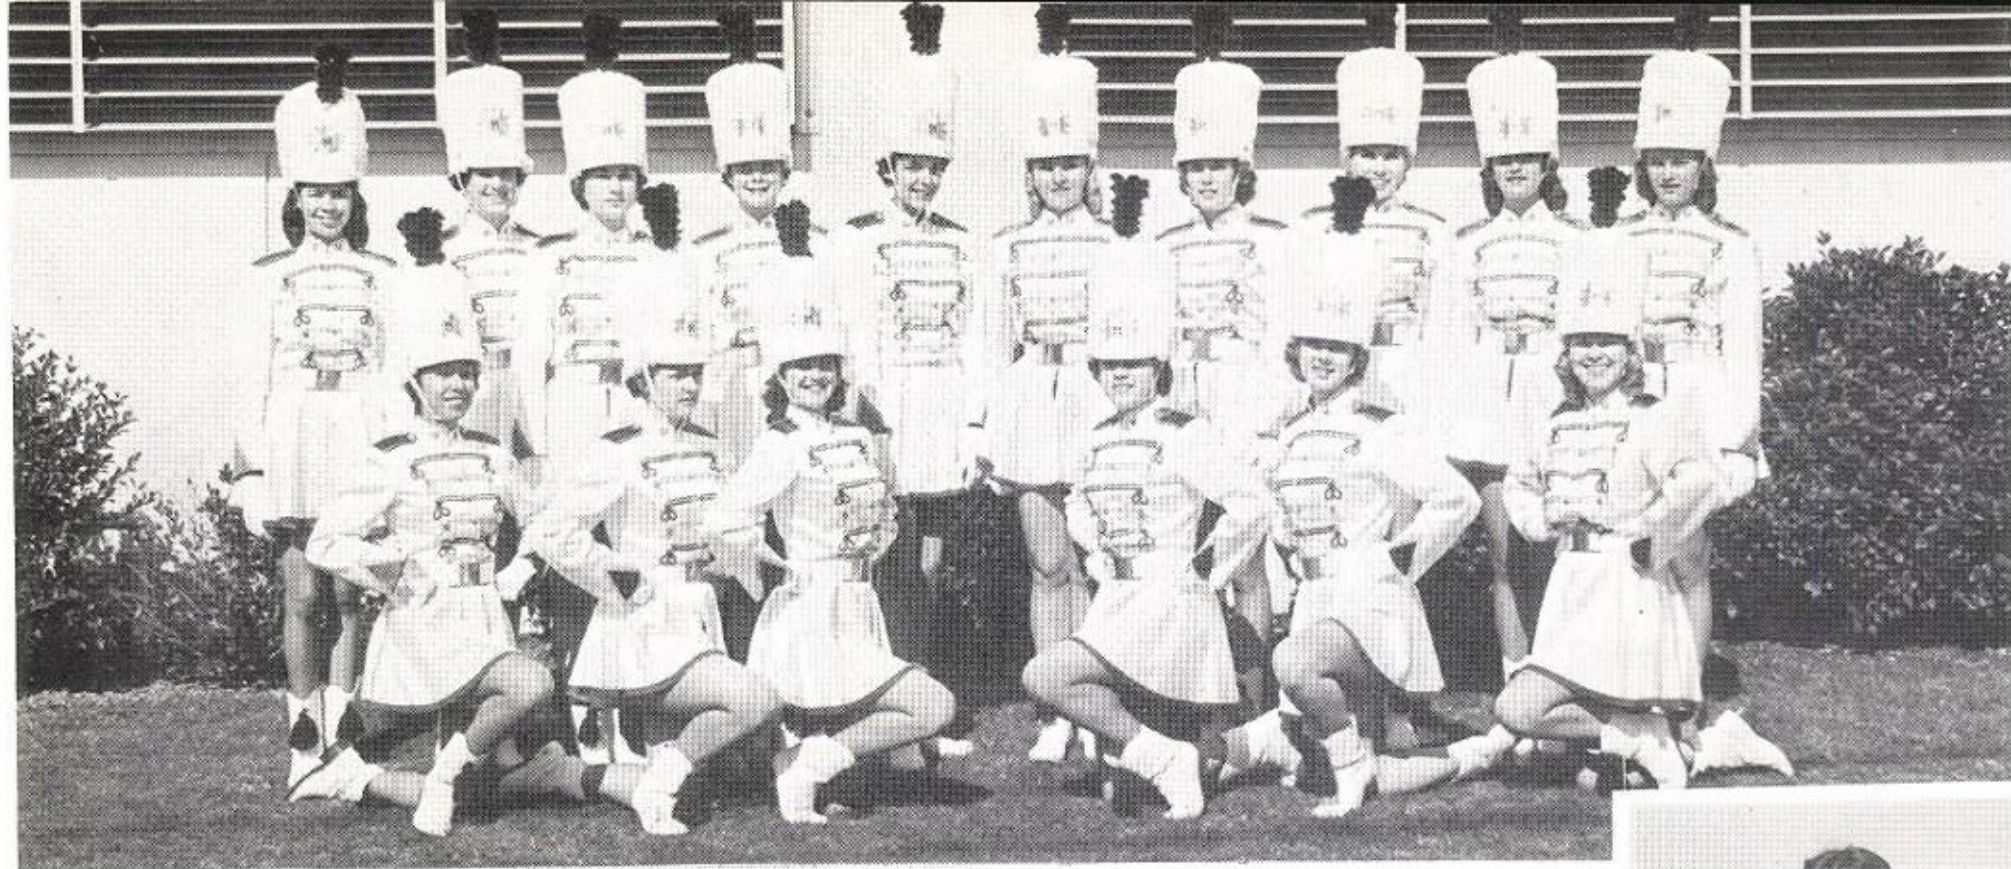

In May they held a Band-O-Rama, and as a finish to this year, they will play at the graduation ceremonies.

Sug,
I have sure enjoyed knowing you these past two years. I wish we would have seen each other more this year, but - that's the way things are. You have a real sweet testimony, always keeps it. I don't think I'll ever forget the time at the beach at Santa Barbara, sure was fun!

God Bless you Always, & have fun

Dear Virginia
It's been lots of years past years, hasn't
it. It only seems like yesterday when we were in 5th grade. I hope that I'll see you for a lot more years, and I know I will all the luck in the world and I know such a nice deserves it.
